

lecture about Food and Environment Laboratory Section activities

Mrs. Munira Al Sayegh Specialist Food Microbiology Principle presented a lecture about Food and Environment Laboratory Section activities and on 11th May 2010 at the meeting hall in Dubai Customs. Over 20 persons from different units of management attended "The delegation of Nestlé, the Dubai Police - Crime Department, Ministry of Economy, Department of Economic Development, Dubai Customs - Department of Protection of Intellectual Property Rights.

The lecture focused on the wide comprehensive range of different analysis parameters conducted in each groups of Food Chemical analysis Unit, Food Microbiological analysis Unit; Environmental Unit; accreditation scope, training programs and major advanced equipments used. On the other hand; Mrs. Munira Al Sayegh mentioned the local order number 11 for the year 2003, which provides the adoption of the Food and Environment Laboratory Section as reference laboratory in testing food for their safety, quality with the adopted standard and Specification.