SUBJECT: PERMANENT WITHDRAWAL OF DCL CERTIFICATION

This has reference to the proposal we sent to you dated 28 May 2018, regarding the renewal of your DCL Certification CL05020004 for Expanded Polystyrene (EPS) Thermal Insulation which expired 30 June 2018.

Please be informed that based on your email dated 09 August 2018, informing us of your management decision not to renew the DCL Certification, your DCL Certificate is considered withdrawn effective today.

In view of this, your company name will likewise be removed from the list of certified products.

Kindly be advised to discontinue the use of DCL Conformity Mark on your product and in your company stationeries. Likewise please ensure that any reference to your DCL certification in any document or correspondence must be removed or stopped.

Nevertheless, we appreciate your participation and cooperation in this certification scheme and should you require our certification services again in the near future, you are always most welcome to visit or contact us anytime.

Best regards.

ARIF HUSAIN AL MARZOOQI
