

Regulations for adding an additional villa to a granted plot

- Polygamy, or having a large family, or any other social condition or that the plot was granted to more than one person
- None of the concerned parties should own any other granted plot
- The family book should be issued from Dubai and the current residence should be in Dubai
- The required documents must be provided (passport copy, family book, and proof of current residence)